Root for the killers.

When two government assassins attend a political fundraiser and botch a major sting operation, they are thrust headlong into an assignment that is way above their pay grade.

In pursuit of the ruthless thief Black Ice, Kinley and Harper are sent to Mexico City to team up with orphaned DEA Agent Laurie Chase. The deeper they get into the operation, the more the trio realizes that they are on their own.

As the body count rises, they must choose between their own principles and the country they serve.

A true page-turner, the witty dialogue in this comedic thriller will keep you guessing until the penultimate page.

For fans of Elmore Leonard, Ed McBain, and David Baldacci.
