Discover the easiest way to grow your online business, boost your profitability and save yourself vast amounts of time and effort... so that you can enjoy life! If you're not yet outsourcing, there's only one question - 'why not?' If you're anything like me then you started an online business because you wanted to create a better life for yourself... You wanted to be able to enjoy what they call "the internet lifestyle" - and you spent nights dreaming about lounging on the beach whilst thousands of Dollars drop into your Paypal account. So why is it that all your time seems to be spent working and there's hardly ever any time for the fun stuff? Believe you me, you're not alone. But if you ARE spending your days working your ass off doing repetitive tasks that fill you with dread then I have some shocking news for you... Not only is this boring and tedious, it's also damaging your business and your ability to grow! Listen. I reckon that in your online business around 10% of your tasks make you around 90% of your income. So why is it that you spend most of your time doing the things which don't actually directly make you any money? I'm talking about writing niche articles, answering technical support queries, doing bookmarking, backlinking... the list goes on and on. All of these things are very important - don't get me wrong - but does it make sound business sense to do them all yourself? Probably not. Quite honestly, if day to day tasks are hampering your success then outsourcing is literally the answer to all of your problems! By outsourcing parts of your business you can free up your time AND make more money money. ... but only if you do it in the right way!
