Practice Management for Dentists Kevin J. Lewis

The new climate of general practice has demanded that greater attention must be given to those aspects of general practice which fall outside the clinical sphere, in short, practice management. This text considers the problems facing the dental practitioner - advances in techniques and equipment, changes in training procedures and in dental needs, all of which buffet the average dentist constantly. The author offers help to dentists of all kinds on how to run his or her practice.
