Water Mirrors (Arts Queensland Thomas Shapcott Poetry Prize) Nicholas Powell

Drawing inspiration from Nicholas Powell's enchanting and disorientating experience of moving to Helsinki, Finland, his poems are concerned with fluctuating perceptions, and with the relationship of language to meaning and aesthetics. Subjects range from the personal to the political, to art, nature, and love. Tonally, it takes in the stark, playful, tender, and ironic. This collection will dazzle and delight with its stylistic experiments and depth of insight.
