One woman's journal through prose of life's varying experiences from dark alleys to baptism and questionings. Navigating through a perplexing world. "I heard these words one stormy night, as midnight mass was given. I shook my head, I shivered, the message so loud and clear. Here forth, I've written down for all of you to peruse, and mayhaps use. Take heed to pay attention for need I mention, twas nigh upon the midnight hour the words began to flow, and I do think most will find the message good to know."
