Practical and theological insights into the mission of God in reconciling a divided, multicultural society through a united, multi-ethnic church. The prophetic call to God's church today is for us to take the dividing ethnic and cultural walls of our churches down and to join together with the Spirit of Christ in bringing the gospel back to the center of society. The heart of God's mission is to unite all peoples of the world in Christ. By planting multicultural churches, God's kingdom made up of peoples, races, and nations begins to emerge. A book full of practical applications and theological insights for church planters, church leaders, and all involved in missional endeavours.
