Making Contact: Our Soul's Journey And Purpose Through Life (Fireside Series, Vol. 2, No. 3)

Ramtha

Part of Ramtha's Fireside Series collection library on the topic of the journey of the soul and evolution as the main purpose of life.

The birthing of the soul can be as dramatic as the birthing of a body. The birthing of the soul has to break through the thick membrane of genetic heritage. It has to break through the thick neuronet programming that everyone calls attitude. The soul is being thrust up through the thickened layers of genetic/environmental/neurological training, and very rarely is the soul born in joy. It is most often born in devastation; it is born in what we call the dark night of the soul. It is the soul's struggle.

The soul may do only one bright and remarkable thing maybe that is all it gets to do but when its morning comes and it is filled with radiance and light and it gets to achieve then the human being is bathed in utter peace, tranquility, and bliss, because it has fulfilled its purpose. Ramtha
