Millennial Chronicles Marian Parisher-Nichols

This is the sequel to Second Event Chronicles. It picks up exactly where SEC leaves off. Have you ever wondered what the Millennium will be like after the return of Christ? It is not detailed anywhere in the Bible but there are hints as to what does happen. The book of Daniel describes a time of peace where even the lion shall lie down with the lamb. The book of Corinthians talks about the Resurrection of the dead and the different stages of the dead returning, and some being called forth for judgment while others are called forth for damnation. What is the difference? But what about the infamous people in history? The ones who are the very essence of evil. What really is going to happen to them? Will they even be resurrected? I attempt an answer to these questions that you will not find in your Bible. They are my thoughts on how I imagine it. So, if you are open-minded and even if you aren't, I think you will find this book even more interesting than Second Event Chronicles.
