Bollandists have given, as an introduction to his Life, so complete a Bibliography of Saint Alonso Rodriguez, that little more remains to be done on the subject of the authorities for the biography of our Saint. Father Nonell, by publishing the writings of St. Alonso with full notes and appendices, has opened out access, for the first time, to the original text of the Memorial or Autobiography of the Saint.¹ This was written by the humble Brother at the express order of his Superiors, and was subjected to a most severe scrutiny during the process of Canonization. Though it was written with care, it is often involved, is full of repetitions, and not unfrequently obscure. Here and there traces of his failing memory are apparent, especially where, as in the first portion, he is speaking of events then a long time past. But, as a record of his interior life, it is simply invaluable. On the very day of St. Alonso's death, the thirtyfirst of October, 1617, Father Michael Julian wrote a short but most interesting notice, in Spanish, of the 10 bras Espirituales. Three Vols.
