“In this story of a quirky adolescence, young immigrant Elsa tries to fit into 1950s Edinburgh society, where people tend to be suspicious and judgmental.”—NOW Magazine

You Fancy Yourself is the story of a young girl with a vivid imagination and a stunning ability to enrich the lives of everyone she encounters. When Elsa and her family move from Iceland to Scotland, she is filled with uncontrollable joy over the new adventure she is about to begin. With her infectious energy and love for the dramatic, Elsa stands out both in her community and within her classroom, but this exuberance also targets her as an outcast.
