Lord of the Horses - THE BATTLE CRY Tom Ravasio

In the fifth book, THE BATTLE CRY- The Lord of the Horses makes it his mission to see that every horse around the world has a chance to ride in the great end time army with Jesus Christ. High Priestess, Samantha Skulley, has bequeathed upon Epona, the white horse of the apocalypse, as 'goddess of all horses.' With this scheming plot she believes they will rule the world and deny Jesus from ever returning on the Lord of the Horses. Angelo Gaudino is cleverly deceived by Skulley into competing in a winner takes all horse show. Confident in her ultimate triumph, Skulley has assembled the dreaded horses of the middle earth to carry out her violent death wish for Shekinah, the reigning Lord of Horses. Forced into humiliating circumstances the Lord of the Horses faces his greatest foe - death. But God has another plan. Tom Ravasio is an ordained minister, author, certified pastoral counselor, and founder of the Shekinah Western Ranch Camp. Tom grew up with a God given passion for horses, which eventually led him to telling bedtime stories about the marvelous and heroic white horse of Revelation 19:11 to his children. These stories took on a metamorphosis of their own and later became pages of thrilling excitement for people of all ages. He and his wife Karen have three daughters and three grandchildren. The Ravasio family lives on a 20-acre horse farm in Monongahela, Pennsylvania.
