Start Here: Teaching and Learning With Adults Barbara Bruce

It's hard to know which is more intimidating: a roomful of wiggling pre-schoolers or know-all adults. "Adult students come with their own agendas and will connect learning to what's going on in their lives," writes Bruce. "They learn what they want to learn." Both facts present challenge and great opportunity to teachers, according to Bruce. "Adults are eager to learn and are searching for meaning, but we must break through their initial reluctance to encourage them to think, question and make connections." Based on some of the latest theories about faith development and learning, Start Here offers practical, down-to-earth strategies designed for teaching adults. Whether you're a Sunday school teacher, a Bible study teacher or a teacher in another setting, you'll find instruction in creating environments where adults grow in faith through your guidance. Topics in Start Here include:

- * planning a lesson
- * dealing with disagreement in class
- * information about adult faith development
- * creating an environment that galvanizes faith formation and faith sharing
- * methods to engage a variety of learning styles
- * the latest data in how adults learn
- * using learning hooks to increase participation

Discussion questions at the end of each chapter are included.
