The Destruction of the Moral Fabric of America Steven Toushin

Destructions author Steven Toushin shares his first-hand experiences with obscenity-law; corruption and immorality within the federal government; and the conservative religious agenda that threatens our constitutional guarantees of religious freedom and freedom of speech. Destruction is for anyone who values liberty, who loves America, who doesn't want to be bullied by right-wing political and religious extremists. It is for people who are interested in individual sexual freedom, law, politics, morality, and a better America for all people.

Destruction of the Moral Fabric of America revolves around the first S/M-obscenity trial following the 1985 Meese Commission on Pornography which ignited a decade of persecution of the adult industry. The trial includes a debate of the issues among recognized members of the BDSM community Tony DeBlase, Guy Baldwin, Goeff Mains, Gayle Rubin, John Roberry, Jim Ward, GMSMA, sociologists, anthropologists, mental health experts, and legal experts. Along with Steven's personal
