The Farmer and the Poor God Ruth Wells

The farmer and his family can't wait to escape the Poor God who lives in their attic. They'll leave before the sun comes up, and they'll never be poor again! But something keeps them from leaving, and in their Poor God they find a richness they would not have found anywhere else. Ruth Wells's retelling of this Japanese folktale, with Yoshi's lush illustrations, creates a compelling book and reminds us that sometimes what we're looking for is in the most unexpected places.
