The Alligator in the Closet: and Other Poems Around the House David L. Harrison

The socks that don't match, the mouse asleep in the tissue box, the creepy creak upon the stair, the dying wasp on the windowsill that breaks your heart . . . These are some of the themes that David L. Harrison touches on in this unique collection of poems. Combining a wit, whimsy, and thoughtfulness, the author of the ever-popular Somebody Catch My Homework, explores both the physical stuff and the oh-so-familiar moments of home in a way that is sure to delight young readers.
