Under October Skies (Autumn in Acadia) Michael Hudson

Photographed by award winning landscape photographer, Michael Hudson, Under October Skies (Autumn in Acadia) contains some of the most beautiful photos of Acadia National Park ever to be published. As an official Acadia Centennial Book, its publication coincides with the 2016 Centennial celebrations. This deluxe hardcover coffee table book is a celebration of Autumn in Acadia, photographed every October for almost ten years- its most colorful and beautiful time of the year. Acadia has some of the most diverse and sublime scenery you'll find anywhere- mountains, lakes, ponds, woods, meadows, carriage roads, trails and miles of ocean coastline. The book is divided into four portfolios- the Coast, Woods and Trails, Lakes and Ponds and Autumn Foliage. Weighing in at over 4 pounds, Under October Skies is 12x12 inches square and features large, full page color and black and white photos (including several 24-inch wide double-page panoramas) printed on thick, heavyweight fine art paper. There's also a brief essay about the history of the park, as well as stories detailing the ups and downs of photographing in the national park. This high quality book will make a beautiful addition to the collection of anyone who loves Acadia, stunning photography, or the beauty found in nature. As Acadia National Park begins its second century, Under October Skies is a reminder of the sublime beauty that marks it as one of the nation's premier national parks.
