Leaving Lukens Laura S Wharton

Set in a small, dying, fishing village on North Carolina's coast in 1942, the novel Leaving Lukens is as much of an action book as it is a love story filled with coming-of-age questions during a challenging time in North Carolina's World War II history. Painstaking research about the time, the war's impact, and the settings of Lukens (which was once a thriving, real community), New Bern, and attacks by German U-boats on the Atlantic fleet will be of interest to any reader interested in World War II or North Carolina history.
