This is the story of the several generations that once lived on the few acres of rolling hills and wetlands in a corner of southern Wisconsin. In Of Time and Place, the reader sees how our lives continue in body, mind, and spirit from the lives of those who came before us. We know that our ancestors are not merely of a former time; they are with us always, in our daily lives, just as we will be in the lives of those who come after us.
