Veil of Civility (Declan McIver Series) Ian Graham

"Declan McIver blasts his way in to join the league of international hard men in this tense, fast-paced and brutal story of terrorist threats, double-cross and political chicanery!"

- Adrian Magson (author of the Harry Tate MI:5 thriller series)

NOTHING CAN STAY HIDDEN FOREVER...

In September 2004, twenty-five Chechens crossed the Mexican border into the United States--and vanished...

For years their intentions and whereabouts have remained a mystery...

UNTIL NOW.

When Chechen terrorist leader, Ruslan Baktayev, is freed from a notorious prison, the Islamist will stop at nothing to carry out the heinous attack he planned before his arrest.

And only one man can stop it.

For years, former IRA volunteer Declan McIver has lived under the radar--married to a beautiful woman and operating a successful business--a peaceful, productive American...

...but when a planned encounter with an old friend goes horribly wrong, Declan must abandon his new life and rely on long-dormant training to survive.

To save the country he has come to love, he must become again the ruthless killer he once was...

"Veil of Civility's complex plot is woven together well, and the character of Declan McIver seems to be part James Bond, part Mitch Rapp, part Joe Pike, with a dash of Gabriel Allon. This book looks set to continue Ian Graham's rise as one of the new breed of thriller writers!"

- Ian Walkey (author of No Remorse)
