Are there patterns of abuse in your family line? Have you searched for healing only to have it elude you? From Generation to Generation describes prayers that can be used to bring healing and wholeness to those who have come from extremely painful family systems. In Healing of Generations prayer we ask Jesus to bring His love and forgiveness to bear on the hurting and/or sinful places in our family lines. As this happens the present-day family members experience spiritual, emotional, and/or physical healing. This book is a step-by-step guide for those needing healing for themselves, and for those who wish to be instrumental in helping others find Generational Healing.
