One Dream and Collected Stories Bet Shoshannah Pecora

The novel, One Dream, is a unique inside view into the world of a teen whose alcoholic mother commits suicide, leaving him to live in an orphanage where he befriends people that entice him in to taking drugs. The surprising thing about One Dream is the honest viewpoint of a young adult, Bet Pecora, writing about her peers. The story speaks in a language that is riveting and emotional, highlighting topics young adults want to hear about, while dealing with serious issues. It is accompanied by 12 shocking real stories about substance abuse written and collected by teens. The gripping reality of the stories brings home the disturbing truth of how much our youth have to endure. It took a great deal of courage, understanding and a profound belief that they are making a difference for them to write these stories.
