A feel-good play that tackles some serious issues. A perfect play choice for amateur or semi-professional drama societies. The stage is set for a happy weekend as Chris Hedges takes his girlfriend, Tanya, home to meet his mother and announce their engagement. Things start to go wrong when the identity of Tanya's father is revealed. It seems that he and Chris's mother knew each other many years before. As the weekend unravels Tanya's father is drawn in to enlist his support. It looks as if everyone is in for an eventful, and surprising, weekend. Eventful Weekend is a play in three acts with a cast of six. The events take place in the country home of Lady Barbara Maitland over one autumn weekend.
