The Lucky Lizard Ellen A. Kelley

Being a little guy is tough, and no one knows this better than Bima, a pet lizard. He sympathizes with the troubles of his eight-year-old owner, Todd, who feels too small for his age, his class, and his new bicycle. It's up to Bima to do his small part and get Todd on two wheels in time for the all-important school Bike Derby.

Written exclusively from Bima's point of view, this is an unusual yet warm and perceptive look at the childhood experiences of overcoming fears, dealing with a bully, and forming a friendship with a good pet.
