In 1885, Catherine arrives from a finishing school in France to live with her father, who is a British Lord. She is beautiful and prepares to become a debutante. What no-one knows is that Catherine was brought up in a French bordello, and her virginity was auctioned a few months before she left France to a "M'siue Bear" Catherine learned a great deal from her Patron, especially how to enjoyed sensual sex. She decides to become "the best courtesan in Paris". In England she is heavily chaperoned, whilst learning how to be a debutante and presented to the Queen. However, Catherine become bored and sneaks out to a local fair where she meets a handsome, passionate gypsy called Rikey. This is when her adventures begin."... She meets suitors as required by her father and society, but a problem occurs which threatens to ruin her reputation and new life of privilege. Until Catherine comes up with a daring plan,..."..."
