Point Blank Sam Hanna

The compelling story of Officer Sam Hanna who was shot 6 times at point blank range inside of his his patrol car. By a series of miracles he survived to go on to a distinguished 38-year career in law enforcement. This incident led to a story aired on television's Top Cops program, but it barely scratches the surface of what made Sam Hanna a Top Cop. In this account, you will read of Sam's drive for justice and his deep belief in the dignity of both the victims of crime and those he arrested. Some of these stories are heartbreaking. Some speak of Sam's hard fought efforts for closure. You will also read of lives dramatically changed for the good by Sam's actions.
