Evil Never Dies Mick Ridgewell

Only the good die young.

Back in the Spring of 1912, evil blossomed in Kings Shore. Vampire demons with a vicious thirst for blood.

Network newsman Roland Millhouse has low expectations for his current assignment. He is to interview Patricia Owens on her 120th birthday. He envisions a feeble old woman in a wheelchair. He encounters someone with more energy than most people a half century younger. A woman with a gruesome story to tell, and a need to tell it.

Roland went to Kings Shore to get a quote and some photos. What he got was a terrifying tale of death and monsters. A tale that would change his life forever.
