See a typically busy week in the life of Jill Wheaten, R.N. She's a compassionate, professional nurse working in Hospice care. Not only does she have to care for her patients and their families, but her co-workers as well. Though Jill is getting used to her new manager's quirky leadership style, he and a newly hired nurse are knocking her out of her groove. Meanwhile her mother's dementia continues to progress causing trouble at home. Oh and did I tell you, Jill is also a single mother of a teenaged son? Jill comes to realize that her life has become so chaotic she has forgotten all about herself.
