The Perfect Storm

Sometimes you have to tear everything down and start over...

Private security specialist Samantha Jane Carson gets the surprise of her life when she arrives at Blake Enterprises for the annual security audit. Instead of her usual contact, she's greeted by the company president himself, the sexy and elusive J.J. Blake. It's her job to know everything about the Blake family, and J.J.'s recent divorce is the talk of the town. Women are lined up to become the next Mrs. Blake, and who wouldn't want to be? J.J.'s gorgeous, rich, and has stormy green eyes that hold women captive.

J.J. Blake is making some major changes in his life. Freshly divorced from ex-wife Eden, he's building a new house, coming to terms with the injury that ended his NFL career, and is ready to start fresh--without romance complicating things. His friends and family encourage him to get back into the dating pool, but he'd rather not be sucked into those rough waters again. Work is the obvious diversion, and he opts to handle the security audit himself for some good old-fashioned guy/tech work. But when Sam Carson walks into his office, J.J.'s brought up short. The "Sam" he was expecting turns out to be Samantha--beautiful, smart, and a tough-as-nails ex-cop in a polished, professional package. And she's just the kind of woman who could drag him under...
