Writing books for our children and grandchildren is a great adventure for me in my journey of faith. I am now over half way toward my goal of seven books and already the benefits have far outweighed the expenditures. It has given me greater clarity on the important things of life and continues to strengthen my faith in the foundational truths of scripture. Book one, You Must Be Born Again, is a simple presentation of the gospel from John chapter three. Book two, Lord Teach Us to Pray, contains powerful and helpful insights to establishing a daily prayer life. Book three, By the Word of God, encourages saints of all ages to grow deeper in love with the Word of God. Book four, For Me and My House, is about the grace of God in our endeavor to have a Christ centered home. Book five, The Weapons of Our Warfare, will give some helpful insights on how to stand firm against the unseen enemy of our souls. Book six, But He Giveth More Grace, will deal with how to appropriate the divine enabling power of God and live in victory. Book seven, The Spirit Himself Beareth Witness, will deal with hearing and obeying the voice of God.
