Four DVDs feature candid new interviews with original members, including singer Paul Di'Anno and guitarist Dennis Stratton, giving a unique insiders account of the early days of the band

Tracing the Iron Maiden story from London's East End pubs through the triumphant Hammersmith Odeon shows and on to the stadium rock phenomenon that we know today, this book is accompanied by four DVDs. The interviews they feature include keyboardist Tony Moore, explaining the reasons for the collapse of the short-lived line-up featuring him on keys. Archive interviews featuring Steve Harris and Bruce Dickinson are complemented by a wealth of news reports and television features tracing the superstar years as the band sails on into its fourth decade.
