The Best Bet: The Tell-All of the Biggest Gambling Scandal in the History of NCAA College Football a Memoir Jamall Anderson

In His memoir, The Best Bet, Jamall Anderson tells the story of how his once rising carrer spiraled into gambling on games, and even betting against his own teammates. He reveals, for the first time, the role he played in the biggest gambling scandal in the history of NCAA College Football, and how it could easily happen today.

Co-written with long time Tampa Bay Times columnist, Ernest Hooper, Anderson's journey details how his decisions at Boston College set off a chain of vents that put him on a merry-go-round of disillusionment as he struggled to recapture the promise of his football glory days.

Now, looking for closure twenty years after the scandal broke, Anderson offers a cautionary tale for aspiring athletes and the parents and the coaches who guide them. He reeks retribution through contribution. He shares his own failures and the steamy underside of college football that revolves around illegal wages, criminal mischief, and using prostitutes to help recruit high school athletes.

The intoxicating freedom that came with being a rising star on a Catholic university campus, a lack of oversight by the coaches and administators guilding the Boston College program and society's ever-present temptations, proved that Jamall couldn't overcome.
